If the tuition rates set for the 2009/2010 school year will present a hardship for your family, local tuition assistance is available. Please indicate the amount of assistance required on a note and mail in the enclosed envelope. The tuition assistance committee (Fr. Carmody, Sister Joesetta, and Bill Parker) will review these requests. All information will be kept confidential.

Please note: There will be an introductory rate for families sending a child to our school for the first time for grades 1-8. The rate for the first child for a new family to our school will be $1550.00 for the first year only. Other children in the family will follow the rates listed above. A first time Nonmember rate will be $2750.00 for first child and $1550.00 for the second child, with regular tuition rates being applied during all subsequent years.

An instructional fee of $65.00 per child is due August 1, 2009. This amount includes Diocesan required insurance premiums. For bookkeeping purposes, this amount should be paid in a check separate from tuition payments. All checks should be made out to Holy Trinity School.
